Windsock Tails...
>>>

Hello Everyone,

Welcome to “RNAC Windsock Tails”, #016.

Today I would like to start with a very special thank you to fellow RNAC members John Macmaster, our CFI, Phil Unicomb and several unknown Luskintyre people. Recently, these friends helped me with a family favour that became integral in achieving what was later described as “For a difficult day, that had to be done, it was perfect”.

From the family of Mark Lennox, deceased, Thank you...

It really is good to know that you have special friends in this world.

Quick Club Update...

Club Comp Day, Sunday 19th November...

Fly something different, Tiger or the Pitts...???

Yes, it’s the Tiger every time for me. See below the motley crew...

Club Comp day, Sunday 17th December...

First the River Bash, Flour Bomb and Spot Landing

Christmas Party at RNAC, Sunday, 17th December.
Below I have several photos of the day...

Could that be our CFI below...???

The Lolly Drop...

It's that time again... Christmas...!!!

A very special time for many of us... I sincerely hope this Christmas can be your best ever. For you, your family and friends, have a merry Christmas, and very happy, safe and successful New Year.

PS – Thanks also to Trevor for helping us get the lolly drop right on target, and photo's on the day.
My thanks also to all who brought dessert's and salad's for an enjoyable day, and all instructors who
Have assisted with club competition days this year – next one 3rd Sunday January 21st 2018.
